

I ILLINOIS

Office for Mathematics,
Science & Technology Education
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

mste.illinois.edu

I ILLINOIS

Office for Mathematics,
Science & Technology Education
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

mste.illinois.edu

I ILLINOIS

Office for Mathematics,
Science & Technology Education
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

mste.illinois.edu

I ILLINOIS

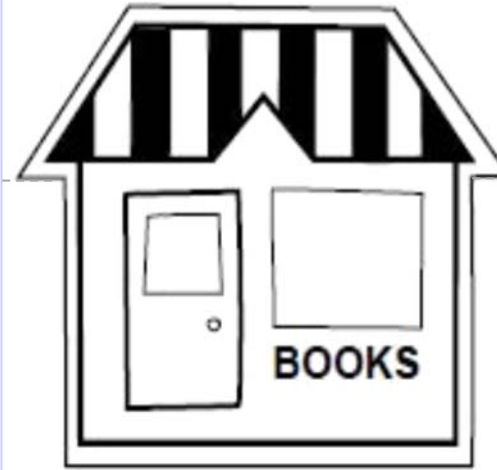

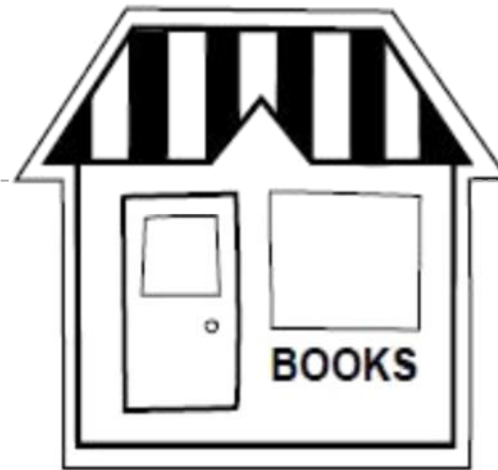

Office for Mathematics,
Science & Technology Education
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

mste.illinois.edu

I ILLINOIS

Office for Mathematics,
Science & Technology Education
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

mste.illinois.edu

Mountain fold on each of the
dotted lines.

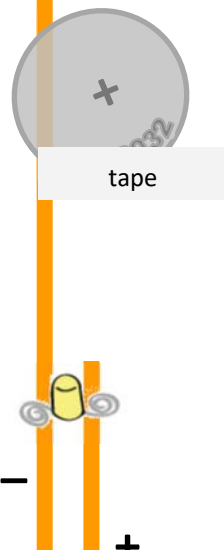

Mountain fold on each of the
dotted lines.

Mountain fold on each of the
dotted lines.

Mountain fold on each of the
dotted lines.

Mountain fold on each of the
dotted lines.

Tape the legs of the LED to the copper tape strips. Remember, the long leg is positive.
Tape the battery to keep it in place.
Tuck the front house flap over the top of the battery. Secure with paperclips.

Continue this tape onto the other side of the card.

This work supported by the Department of Energy and the Department of Homeland Security.

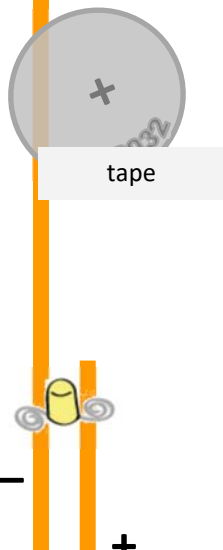

Tape the legs of the LED to the copper tape strips. Remember, the long leg is positive.
Tape the battery to keep it in place.
Tuck the front house flap over the top of the battery. Secure with paperclips.

Continue this tape onto the other side of the card.

This work supported by the Department of Energy and the Department of Homeland Security.

Tape the legs of the LED to the copper tape strips. Remember, the long leg is positive.
Tape the battery to keep it in place.
Tuck the front house flap over the top of the battery. Secure with paperclips.

Continue this tape onto the other side of the card.

This work supported by the Department of Energy and the Department of Homeland Security.

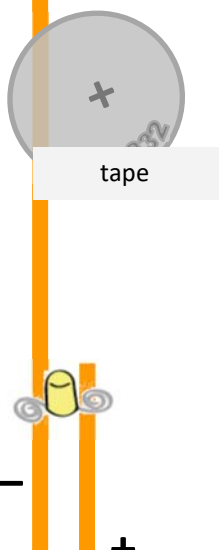

Tape the legs of the LED to the copper tape strips. Remember, the long leg is positive.
Tape the battery to keep it in place.
Tuck the front house flap over the top of the battery. Secure with paperclips.

Continue this tape onto the other side of the card.

This work supported by the Department of Energy and the Department of Homeland Security.

Tape the legs of the LED to the copper tape strips. Remember, the long leg is positive.
Tape the battery to keep it in place.
Tuck the front house flap over the top of the battery. Secure with paperclips.

Continue this tape onto the other side of the card.

This work supported by the Department of Energy and the Department of Homeland Security.